How it works

Discover universities

Explore which colleges would be a great fit for you, see what micro-scholarships they're offering, and Follow colleges you're interested in.

Show Colleges Your Achievements

Start building your portfolio with high school achievements, classes, activities, and scores to see your earnings from colleges for each achievement you add.

Hard Work Pays Off

After applying and being accepted, you'll be awarded your micro-scholarships in your financial aid letter from the college that you choose to attend.
