Summer Reading Project instructions are on the 2nd page.

Summer Project

Create a power point or booklet that demonstrates your understanding of your summer reading.

Your project must contain the following components:

1) Main Character Analysis (2-3 slides/pages)

Choose 1 character from the novel:

- a) Identify (3) features of the character's appearance
- b) List (3) internal and/or external character conflicts.
- c) Identify & explain a quote that speaks to the character's personality
- d) Draw a symbol or image of the character.

2) Theme Analysis (1 slide/1 page)

Discuss in paragraph ONE theme of the novel; make sure to include detailed support from the novel explaining your choice (5 sentences minimum).

3) Novel's Setting (1-2 slides/pages)

Choose a significant setting in the novel:

- a) Draw an illustration of the setting
- b) Provide a quote describing it.
- c) Describe a significant event that takes place in the setting (1-2 sentences).

4) Meaningful Quote (1 slide/page)

Choose a quote from the novel that is meaningful to you:

Discuss the quotes' significance in the novel & to you (1-2 sentences).

5) Project Appearance

*Projects (whether ppt or booklet) needs to be thoughtful and creative; avoid using pencil on looseleaf lined paper:

- a) the ppt should have multiple slides for each section (see above) with clear titles & fonts.
- b) The ppt should have a cover slide and an end slide IN ADDITION to the interior slides.
- c) A paper booklet will be written in ink or typed, and the images colored.
- d) The paper should be (choose one) copy paper (may be white or colored), construction paper, or card stock (no lined or graph paper).
- e) The book should be bound or stapled to look like a book with a front cover and back cover (in addition to the interior pages).
